

Cultural Association Of Brazilian Arts

www.CAOBArts.org

The Cultural Association of Brazilian Arts (CAOBA) is a not-for-profit organization with 501 (c) (3) status.

NEWSLETTER VOLUME 1, ISSUE 1 NOVEMBER 2010

UPCOMING EVENTS:

CAOBA's End of the Year Celebration 12/19/2010 @ 2pm

Brazilian Festival & Capoeira Encounter April 2011

'Viver Brasil' at bergenPAC Tickets on Sale now

Summer Program for Youth July 2011

Register early! Group Discounts available

Sponsors:

Our Programs and classes are offered at discounted prices.

Thanks to the generous support of our sponsors, we are able to realize our VISION:

Provide all members of the community with access to highly regarded programs that inspire and promote growth, empowerment and constant learning.

Follow us on:

Annual Fundraising Gala 09/25/2010

CAOBA held it's 2nd Annual Fundraising Gala on September 25th, 2010 at the Clinton Inn's Grand Ballroom in Tenafly. The theme was "An Evening In Brazil" with sponsor networking, traditional Brazilian food sampling and a Capoeira demonstration by students of Mestre Bayano. The event was well attended, many of our guests having attended our 1st Annual Fundraiser, held last year at Brasilia Grill in Newark.

CAOBA's President and Founder, Irani Andreati (Mestre Bayano), thanked our sponsors and everybody for coming out in support of our cause. He took the opportunity to talk about one of

Leath Nunn was this years recipient of the Mestre Bayano Award

CAOBA's big projects for this coming April: Brazilian Festival and Capoeira Encounter which includes a show from "Viver Brasil" at the bergenPAC in Englewood.

Leath Nunn, a long time friend and supporter of CAOBA and it's efforts was this year's recipient of the Mestre Bayano award.

A good time was had by all, dancing to the music of Marcio Mendes & Mix Brazil Band.

Visit our Photo Gallery on our website at www.caobarts.org to see more pictures from the night.

Maculelê Halloween 2010! 10/30/2010

Our Workshop began at 6pm, with many people showing up to experience Maculele, taught by, dance instructor, Ginga Da Bahia. This beautiful, cultural Brazilian art form originated from slaves using knives and sticks to express the emotions and frustrations of the hardship of slavery.

Afterwards, the audience was taken on an inspiring cultural journey through a performance of Orixas: OMOLU, EXU, XANGO and OGUN, brought to us by professional artists from Bahia. This very high energy show ended with a capoeira roda by capoeira mestres, contramestres, professores and instrutores.

Muito Obrigado to all the performers!

In Brazilian fashion, the party continued into the wee hours of the morning. More pictures at www.caobarts.org.

Brazilian Culture/Language Class 11/03/2010

These are ongoing at the moment at the Nacao Capoeira Studio in Bergenfield - 64 South Washington Ave, Bergenfield, NJ 07621. Our Brazilian born instructor promises:

"The classes are only an excuse...I can give you a taste of the lifestyle, the mentality, the peculiar way of life, topped with the incomparable musical 'Brazilian Language'. A few Portuguese lessons will change your life for the best, forever."

Attending Students are beginning to speak in Portuguese already! For more information, or to register for upcoming classes, go to our website : www.caobarts.org/programs.

CAOBA fosters intellectual, moral and physical development through exposing communities of all ages, races, and physical conditions to the powerful tools of Brazilian art forms and cultural expressions.